1. Overview of Results of Operations

(1) Results of Operations

During the first half of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025, the Japanese economy remained on a recovery trend, mainly reflecting the improvement of corporate earnings and growing demand due to inbound tourists. However, the business environment remained uncertain mainly due to the sluggish growth of consumer spending, which was a result of increased prices caused by the weaker yen and the high cost of resources. Uncertainty remained in the global economy due to persistent geopolitical risks, including risks related to the growing tensions in the Middle East and the protracted Ukraine conflict.

In the logistics industry, the trends in the volume of international sea cargo were as follows. Shipments of machinery remained strong because demand associated with capital expenditures outside Japan recovered gradually while the global economy maintained modest positive growth. The volume of automotive sector shipments also remained on a trend of positive growth due to the full-scale shift to EVs and the expansion of plant production. The volume of air shipments increased due to an accelerated increase of semiconductor-related cargo reflecting the improvement of the supply-demand situation for semiconductors and full-scale AI-related demand, as well as the shift to air shipments attributed to the disruption of ocean transport on sea routes in Europe and the United States. On the other hand, the total volume of cargo shipments in Japan again decreased year on year, although consumer-related cargo including beverages remained strong due in part to the effect of the extreme heat in the summer. This more than offset production-related and construction-related cargo that remained weak. Furthermore, logistics companies in Japan had to deal not only with issues such as a long-standing shortage of drivers and price-based competition within the logistics sector but also with the restriction on driver overtime beginning in 2024 (known as the “2024 Problem”). In addition, truck fuel prices also continued to rise due to the impact of higher crude oil prices.

In such a management environment, the Group has entered the final year of the Eighth Medium-term Management Plan for the three years from the fiscal year ended in March 2023. Goals for the plan’s final year include a further sales drive to win new orders from target companies in terms of our growth targets. To become more competitive, we plan to build a new logistics platform and focus on developing the infrastructure that will enable us to provide sustainable logistics services, and we will also seek to expand our network through the establishment of new logistics bases in Japan and overseas. Many activities are planned for the reinforcement of our corporate foundation. We will steadily push ahead with the development of our next-generation core system (MALoS system), and we will also develop human resources to promote improvement in our human capital, strengthen information disclosures linked to our financial and non-financial activities, and engage in sustainability activities with our partner companies. All the Group’s officers and employees have a firm commitment to accomplishing the plan’s goals for sales and earnings.

Consequently, the Group’s results of operations for the first half of the current fiscal year were as follows: operating revenue increased by 3.8% year-on-year to 71,237 million yen, operating profit increased by 13.8% year-on-year to 6,881 million yen, and ordinary profit increased by 13.0% year-on-year to 7,374 million yen. Profit attributable to owners of parent increased by 21.1% year-on-year to 5,892 million yen.

Business segment performance was as follows.

Logistic Operations

In the freight truck transportation business, the handling volume of construction machinery and housing equipment decreased but the handling volume of IT equipment and housing equipment increased in the Kanto region. In the Chubu region, there was an increase in the handling volume of housing equipment and heat insulators. In the Kansai region there was an increase in the handling volume of oils and fats and housing materials. There was also an increase in the handling volume of motor-related products, and overall the freight truck transportation business reported an increase in operating revenue.

In the harbor transportation business, there was a decrease in the handling volume of construction machinery in the Kanto region, but the harbor transportation business as a whole recorded an increase in operating revenue due to an increase in the handling volume of chemical products, plant equipment, and power generation materials.

In the warehousing operations business, the handling volume of chemical products and IT equipment increased but the handling volume of pharmaceutical products, household products, and wooden pellets decreased in the Kanto region. The handling volume of housing equipment rose in the Chubu region. In the Kansai region, the handling volume of synthetic resins and household products decreased. Overall, a slight decrease in operating revenue was recorded in the warehousing operations business.

In the railway logistics business, an increase in operating revenue was recorded due to an increase in the handling volume of grain and roll paper.

In the logistics-related business, ocean transportation revenue increased due to an increase in the handling volume of plant equipment. Coastal transportation revenue also increased due to the growth of the handling volume of power generation materials and grain. Revenue from packing operations increased, reflecting an increase in the handling volume of machinery parts. Therefore, the logistics-related business recorded an increase in operating revenue.

Operating revenue of the Logistic Operations segment increased by 3.8% year-on-year to 61,891 million yen and segment profit (operating profit) increased by 14.6% year-on-year to 5,871 million yen.

Yard Operations and Mechanical Cargo Handling

In Yard Operations, the handling volume of power generation materials increased. Overall, an increase in operating revenue was recorded in the Yard Operations and Mechanical Cargo Handling segment.

As a result, operating revenue of the Yard Operations and Mechanical Cargo Handling segment increased 3.8% year-on-year to 8,203 million yen and segment profit (operating profit) increased by 11.1% year-on-year to 774 million yen.

Other Operations

Revenue from renting land increased due to the start of a new deal. The result was an increase in operating revenue in the Other Operations segment as a whole.

As a result, operating revenue of the Other Operations segment increased by 7.0% year-on-year to 1,142 million yen and segment profit (operating profit) increased by 3.8% year-on-year to 235 million yen.

(2) Financial Position

1) Balance sheet position

The balance of total assets at the end of the second quarter of the current fiscal year decreased by 352 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year to 191,005 million yen.

Of these, the balance of current assets was 74,636 million yen, up 39 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year. This was mainly due to a decrease of 2,169 million yen in notes and accounts receivable - trade, and contract assets and an increase of 1,999 million yen in securities. The balance of non-current assets was 116,368 million yen, down 392 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year. This was mainly due to increases of 532 million yen in land and 282 million yen in leased assets, which was more than offset by a decrease of 1,487 million yen in investment securities.

The balance of current liabilities was 32,070 million yen, down 7,296 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year. This mainly reflects decreases of 5,298 million yen in short-term borrowings, 1,154 million yen in trade notes and accounts payable, and 499 million yen in accrued consumption taxes. The balance of non-current liabilities was 26,785 million yen, up 2,736 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year. This was mainly due to an increase of 2,844 million yen in long-term borrowings.

The balance of net assets was 132,149 million yen, up 4,208 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year. This is attributed mainly to a decrease of 282 million yen in total accumulated other comprehensive income, which was more than offset by an increase of 4,466 million yen in retained earnings.

2) Cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents (hereinafter, “net cash”) at the end of the second quarter of the current fiscal year increased 952 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year to 42,154 million yen.

Cash flows for the first half of the current fiscal year and the main factors for changes are described as below.

Cash flows from operating activities

Net cash provided by operating activities increased 1,672 million yen year-on-year to 7,368 million yen.

This was mainly due to the recording of profit before income taxes of 8,662 million yen, depreciation of 2,438 million yen, a decrease in trade receivables of 2,248 million yen, which were partially offset by income taxes paid of 2,604 million yen.

Cash flows from investing activities

Net cash used in investing activities increased 275 million yen year-on-year to 2,564 million yen.

This reflects payments of 900 million yen for purchase of securities, 2,207 million yen for purchase of property, plant and equipment, and 798 million yen for purchase of intangible assets, which were partially offset by proceeds from sale of investment securities of 1,441 million yen.

Cash flows from financing activities

Net cash used in financing activities increased 382 million yen year-on-year to 4,062 million yen.

This was mainly due to proceeds from long-term borrowings of 3,704 million yen, repayments of long-term borrowings of 6,158 million yen, and dividends paid of 1,425 million yen.

(3) Explanation of Consolidated Earnings Forecasts and Other Forward-looking Statements

The Japanese economy, which was recovering behind other advanced economies following the COVID-19 pandemic, is expected to remain on a modest recovery trend, mainly due to the steady progress in the normalization of social and economic activity and the improvement of the employment situation and the income environment. However, the global situation surrounding the Japanese economy is expected to remain uncertain mainly due to the ongoing depreciation of the yen and the increase of prices, concerns about the future of the Chinese economy, and the conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine.

In such a management environment, the Company has created a new slogan: “Logistics is Love.” to commemorate the 90th anniversary of its establishment. Under the slogan, all the Group’s officers and employees will work together as a team to achieve the sales and earnings targets to repay the patronage of our customers. To this end, the Group will aim for the world’s highest level of customer satisfaction and continue to innovate logistics.

At present, there is no change to the full-year earnings forecasts for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 that were announced on August 8, 2024. If the earnings forecasts are revised due to changes in the market environment or similar reasons, the Company will promptly announce the revised forecasts.

(4) Notes to Semi-annual Consolidated Financial Statements

Changes in Accounting Policies

Application of Accounting Standard for Current Income Taxes, etc.

The Company has applied the Accounting Standard for Current Income Taxes (Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) Statement No. 27, October 28, 2022) beginning with the first half of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025.

Revisions concerning the accounting classification of income taxes (taxation of other comprehensive income) are made in accordance with the transitional treatment stipulated in the proviso of Paragraph 20-3 of this revised accounting standard and with Paragraph 65-2, Item 2 of Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Tax Effect Accounting (ASBJ Guidance No. 28, October 28, 2022). There is no effect of the application of this standard on the semi-annual consolidated financial statements.

For the revision concerning the change in the treatment in the consolidated financial statements of the tax deferral of gains or losses on sales of shares of subsidiaries, etc. between consolidated companies, the Company has applied the Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Tax Effect Accounting beginning with the first half of the current fiscal year. This change has been applied retrospectively and the semi-annual and fiscal year consolidated financial statements for the previous fiscal year are shown after this restatement. There is no effect of the application of this standard on the semi-annual and fiscal year consolidated financial statements for the previous fiscal year.
